Dear Verna —

I received your letter this morning.

Papa and I are all alone It sure is funny, first time since Helen was born

Ray is at the Fair Lloyd and Lyle are out to George Myers Grandmas they are going to stay two nights

I helped Helen and Myrtle Can beans yesterday so we were all at Helens for dinner last night. Did I tell you she lives the 3rd house down the road from Covingtons

Its a new house all furnished

Yes Papa got hurt again a week ago last Sat. Truck run over his foot. I'll tell you about it some other time so that while he was at home I better get my operation over with, and thank G- its over too I had them out Friday morning have an awful sore throat but its getting well.

(this pen is the bump)

We are coming up to get you Walter said to plan on going. and Helen wants to go in her car. so I dont know which way We will come. If papa is still here I want to come up Wed. but if he isnt I dont know if we could start till early Thursday. Let me know what day you plan on coming.

Tell Carol not to worry about us coming. We wont need a thing and We can sleep without sheets. (I hope you have them all washed and ironed Ha Ha)

Whats the matter with Walt, is he afraid he's going to loose you? He said he didn't want to go to Salem

Well papa is waiting for this to mail it down Tokion he put $10.00 in the bank your account was closed so you must have taken it all out give Carol all but just what you need. We cant get any thing from Henriott only a little at a time

Ill try to bring some if I come

Let me know before Wed.

Mother

and

Dad
